Blair recently completed filming his role of 'Caleb' in ROCKETMAN for ITV and can now be seen in his first major feature film, the new Warner Bros. CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY, in the role of the 'Young Willy Wonka'.

This is Blair's first movie role and it has given him a taste for work in front of the camera which he relishes. Tim Burton has praised Blair's work in this role and Blair, at only 12 years old was given the opportunity to play alongside such stars as Christopher Lee and Johnny Depp.

Blair possesses a fine voice and plays both guitar and mandolin. He attends the Foremarke School and has appeared in numerous school productions which have included 'Charlie' in CHARLIE, and 'Balthasar' in ROMEO AND JULIET.
